Dedication

The person to whom the 1973 PHOENIX is dedicated was named Outstanding Young Educator of the Year in Washington County in 1972 by the Abingdon Jaycees. During the twelve years she has taught at John S. Battle High School, she has stressed the importance of independent thinking and excellence in performance on the part of the student. With her help and encouragement, students are inspired to participate in forensics and creative writing contests. One year her students entered the state creative writing contest in Charlottesville and made a "clean sweep" of first place, winning the top honor in poetry, short story, and essay categories. Another example of her consistent effectiveness as a teacher is how well prepared her students are for college English. Nearly all of them find English less difficult than any other subject they take in college.

She received her Bachelor of Arts degree at Stetson University and did graduate work at East Tennessee State University and the University of Virginia. While teaching at Battle she has been advisor to the S.C.A., a coach for forensics and debate, and a consultant for the state creative writing contest. She is presently advisor to the National Honor Society, does home bound teaching, and serves on the state evaluation committee.

She is a leader of minds and a guide of the students, bringing new materials and methods of teaching to her classes, opening minds to new ideas and never losing sight of the purpose of English. Because of her loyalty and unceasing efforts, the PHOENIX staff proudly dedicates the 1973 PHOENIX to Miss Phyliss J. Ratliffe.

The year of 1973 was exciting for the Seniors. Most students took part in a variety of activities which made the year most valuable. A Steering Committee was formed to plan various activities throughout the year, such as a senior dance, senior picnic, and a breakfast after the prom.

W.O.P.I. sponsored a Senior of the Week Contest which gave honors to 10 seniors. They were Ike Anderson, Mike Bailey, Vonnie Edwards, Kathy Fraser, Carolyn Gallimore, Kathy Koch, Blaine Morris, Lyle Parker, Steve Robinson, and Jack Wagner.

As the year continued, students began to look toward the future, deciding what careers might be available. Some chose colleges while others chose jobs. The highlights of the year were the prom, held at the V.F.W., and of course, graduation.

Time quickly flew by and the year finally came to a close. We started realizing what it meant to be a senior. We were bout to say good-bye and realized that the year went by much too fast and parting was harder than expected. We realized we must face the world as young adults for the first time, and the thought didn't sound as pleasant as before. The class was sponsored by Mrs. Lou Crabtree.

The class of '74 at Battle, sponsored by Mr. Jack Garland, met the challenges of Abingdon High School in the annual magazine sales drive by raising a total of $4,582.28. The class made over $1,800 profit which was used to present the graduating class of '73 with a fantastic prom. Such enthusiasm was shown by the entire Junior class, under the leadership of Mark Draper, that no other fund raising activities were necessary. All salesmen were rewarded generously with a number of prizes.

This year the Sophomore Class members were active in student affairs at John Battle. Many started on the Varsity football team throughout the season, and a large number were listed on the Varsity roster. Many of the Junior Varsity cheerleaders were members of the Sophomore class. Several Sophomores were officers of the Student Cooperative Association. Many Sophomores feel that their most important contribution was the class's active support in raising funds for the cafeteria's tape system.

Although the first year in high school held an interesting beginning for the eighth graders, the students did not dismiss the importance of past years. The eighth graders, sponsored by Mrs. Collins, began their five year term at Battle by attending orientation to learn about the school. They compiled a history of all students, which included a listing of elementary schools attended and gave any honors received in elementary school.

The students demonstrated an interest in Battle's athletics by decorating the lockers of the eighth grade football and basketball players. They also proved their school spirit by winning the spirit stick at most of the pep rallies.

This year through the Student Cooperative Association a good communication line was opened among students, teachers, and administration. The overall atmosphere was relaxed, due to free and frequent discussions among the different school groups.

Also Mr. Farnsworth, as well as other members of the administration, was present at several S.C.A. scheduled meetings to hear the voice of the student body through their elected representatives.

The S.C.A., under the supervision of Mr. Donald Mashburn and Mr. Jim Butcher, managed the school store, sponsored clean-up week, assembly programs, took part in a mock election, worked to get a tape system in the cafeteria, and worked to develop the merit system. S.C.A. members also found time to attend the district S.C.A. meeting in Wytheville, and to attend the state S.C.A. meeting in the spring of 1973.

Under the direction of Mrs. Lenora M. Smith and Mr. David P. Robinette, the 4-H Club of Washington County had many projects and programs. There was a county council who planned programs and projects. The representatives from Battle to the county council were Susan Warren and Denise Frohling. In the summer of 1972, seven members from Washington County, Virginia spent a week in Washington County, Pennsylvania, staying with families of fellow 4-H'ers. In accordance to plans, members visited states in the midwestern and southeastern United States. To go on these trips, members worked hard to earn money in such projects as pancake suppers and lunch sales. For entertainment, a dance and/or concert was planned for spring or summer.

At school meetings, 4-H'ers have many projects. These include raising animals, care of farm equipment, wildlife, home economics, and ground beautification. At the meetings, members or leaders gave demonstrations in one of the areas mentioned above. Battle club members held a car wash which received active participation.

Varina Woodwood, an unexpected guest, created much conflict when she arrived at the Huff residence in the Christmas play.

The speech and drama classes presented a modern version of the Nativity using Readers Theatre.

Theatre Arts at John S. Battle High school provided students with experiences in the total theatre process: acting, design, rehearsal, production, stagecrafts, and play attendance. The dramatic season began with a Christmas production entitled "A Christmas Potpourri". Presented by students of the speech and drama classes, the program consisted of a one-act comedy and Readers' Theatre adaptation of A Child Is Born. Experience was gained in stage movement, dialogue, makeup, sound effects, and publicity.

In February twelve Juniors gathered to decide the fate of a young girl in the production of The Jury Room. The cast and technical crews for this three-act play were composed of students from all grade levels.

The speech and drama classes entered the Southwest District One-Act Play Festival in March and presented the episodic play, An Overpraised Season. The classes also presented several one-act plays to English classes during the year. Students were given complete production responsibilities for these performance and were consequently able to apply their classroom study of drama. Throughout the year students enjoyed attending community theatre and visiting the drama departments of several local colleges. Dramatics proved to be an interesting and a successful venture at John Battle during the 1972-'73 school year.

Laura Brotbeck and Phil Parris portrayed husband and wife in a Christmas one-act play.

The 1972 Senior Class Play was the three-act comedy The Whole Truth.

The bureau is open to any eighth through twelfth grader who can prove his speaking ability. Members are invited to several speaking dinner events sponsored by civic clubs. Their advisors are Mr. Tom Stokes and Mr. Jack Garland.

Debate Society

David Hunsaker prepares for debate tournament.

The 1972-'73 Debate Society was involved in two major activities this spring. Throughout the fall and winter the society worked hard with these two events as their goals. The first of these was a trip to the University of Richmond for the annual debate tournament. The second was participation in the Southwest District debate tournament.

The National Honor Society creates enthusiasm for scholarship, stimulates a desire to render service, develops character, and promotes leadership within the students of John S. Battle.

The main project each year is the awarding of a scholarship to an outstanding National Honor Society member. Miss Phyllis Ratliffe is the society's advisor.

Every year the Junior Civitans participate in special activities as a service to the school and the community. One of the activities of the club last fall was to sponsor a "Get Out the Vote" campaign to enable voters without rides to reach the polls.

Projects in winter and spring included furnishing benches for the senior court, buying furniture for the teachers' lounge, participating in a basketball game with the Key Club, and attending the annual Civitan convention in scenic Gatlinburg, Tennessee.

The 1972-'73 yearbook staff began planning the 1973 yearbook by attending a yearbook workshop at Virginia Intermont College in May. In August, Vonnie Edwards, Editor-in-chief, and Lyn Sheffield, Advertising and Sports Editor, brought home honorable mentions for competition in section, lay-out designs from a four day yearbook workshop at Emory and Henry College.

The 1973 staff sold 1100 yearbooks, a sales drive that no school in this area can match. Money making projects other than yearbook sales and advertising included sponsoring an assembly program featuring The Slug, the Miss PHOENIX Contest, an appearance on Klassroom Kwiz, bake sales, window washes, and car washes. The staff also participated in the homecoming decorations contest. Miss Penny Vermillion is the yearbook advisor.

Members also enjoyed entering their works in various art competitions including the Mary Lula Tedder Art Award.

The Spanish Club, sponsored by Mrs. Bernice Hernandez, has had an outstanding year. There were many new members on hand for various club projects. In the course of the year, special speakers were present at the meetings. Members were visited by such local personalities as the Reverend Bob McGaughey and Professor W.L. Siemens from V.I. College, who gave interesting accounts of the lives of Spanish-speaking people around the world. The club members were recognized for their imaginative display of Homecoming decorations. The final, but perhaps best feature was the customary Spanish Fiesta in the spring.

There was a Roman Banquet, and the year was traditionally concluded with the Latin Club Banquet.

The annual picnic was held in the spring.

The French Club is supported by dues and by the proceeds from bake sales.

Distributive Education refers to vocational education for those students preparing for or engaged in distributing goods and services to the public, including all retail, wholesale, and service occupations. Distributive Education offers preparatory instruction for students desiring to explore distribution as a career, seeking a broader knowledge of the principles of free enterprise, or building a foundation for continuing education relating to distribution. Its purpose is also to provide vocational instruction for individuals already employed or preparing to enter those occupations followed by proprietors, managers, or employees in distribution.

The Distributive Education Program of John S. Battle High School has an enrollment of 66 students, twenty-six in D.E. I, twenty-three in D.E. II, and seventeen in D.E. III. Forty-three of these students are working in twenty-five distributive business of the Bristol area. These students have an average hourly wage of $1.55 and will earn approximately $100,000 collectively this school year.

F.H.A. CREED

We are the Future Homemakers of America.
We face the future with warm courage and high hope.
For we have the clear consciousness of seeking
Old and precious values.

For we are the builders of homes.
Homes for America's future.
Homes where living will be the expression of everything,
That is good and fair.
Homes where truth and love and security and faith
Will be realities, not dreams.

We are the Future Homemakers of America.
We face the future with warm courage
And high hope.

G.A.A.

The Girls' Athletic Association had one of its finest years during the 1972-'73 school session. A successful year began with the girls' basketball team winning five games out of the season. During the holidays Christmas spirit was shown by G.A.A. members when articles of clothing, food, and presents were donated to a needy family through the Santa Pal organization. While the March of Dimes was having their yearly crusade against birth defects, members of the G.A.A. volunteered to help by selling peanuts in the Bristol area. The girls began practicing early for track to assure themselves a winning season.

Perhaps the most spectacular display of talent of G.A.A. members was the 1973 Gym Show held in April. The show featured modern dancing, exercises on the rings, horse, and parallel bars, comedies on commercials, and tumbling. Miss Carmichel, Mrs. King, and Mrs. Robbins, and the girls produced a fantastic show.

Toward the end of the year, the G.A.A. held its annual banquet for its members. Awards, letters, and thanks were received by outstanding girl athletics and their leaders. The club advisor is Miss Julia Carmichel.

Football

The Trojans opened the 1972 football season with a thrilling victory over crosstown rival Virginia High. The Trojans came from behind three times to outscore the Bearcats 20-19.

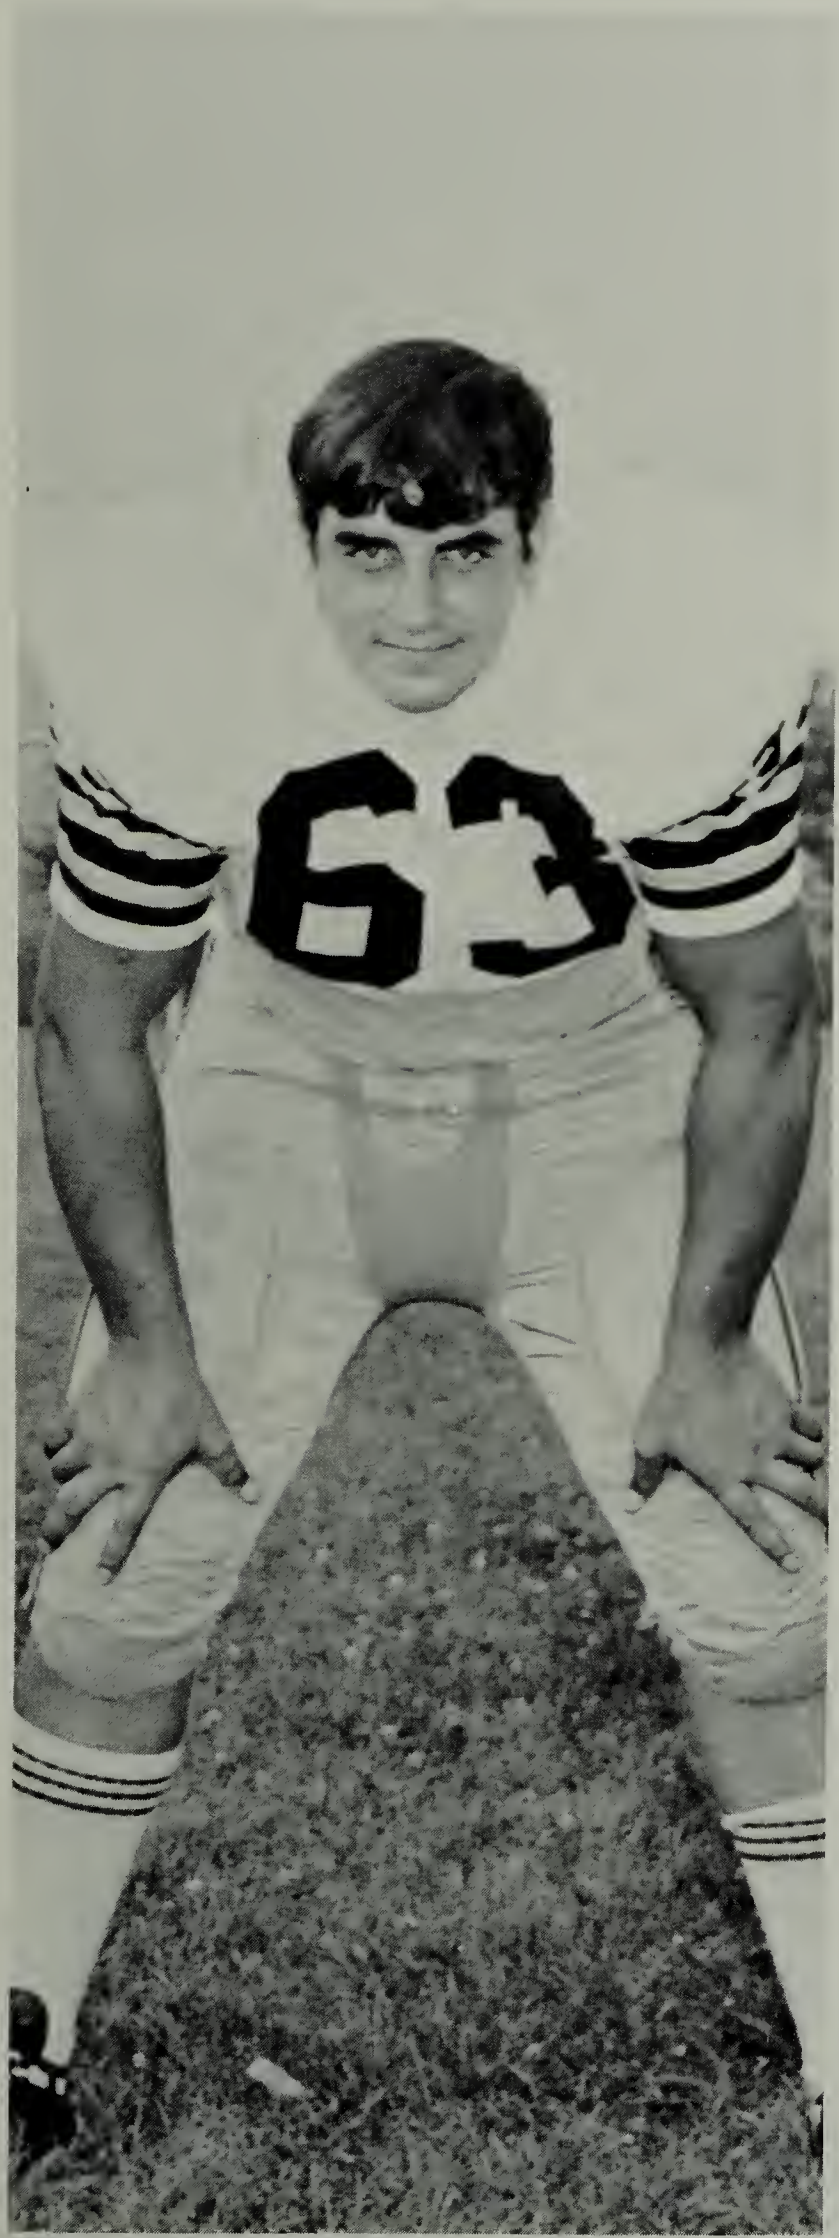
The next two weeks were dark for the Trojans. Tennessee High put on an impressive 39-0 offensive show, and the Kingsport Indians romped to a 42-12 victory.

The Trojans bounced back to tie district foe Abingdon 0-0 in a rain deluge. Darius Johnson played an outstanding defensive game claiming 14 unassisted tackles.

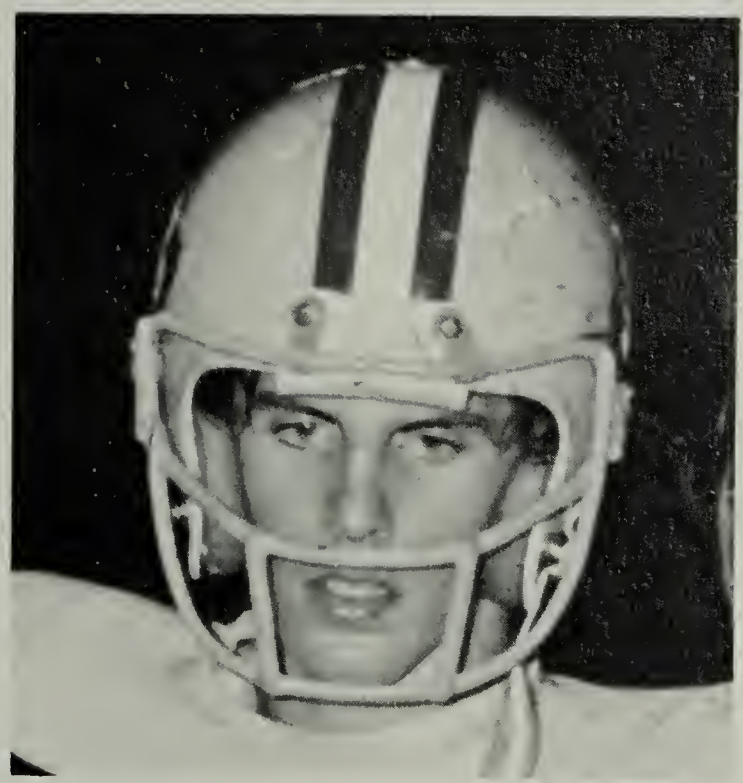
Once defeated Gate City routed the Trojans 52-7 in another district game. Jerry Chorosevic scored Battle's lone TD.

Greg Yoho moves in on defense.

Mike Venable rambles against Virginia High.



Darius Johnson was named Southwest District's Lineman-of-the-Year.



Bo Snodgrass was named first team defense in Southwest District.

Football

The Trojans returned with a 25-22 win over Patrick Henry. Coming from behind, the Trojans combined a strong defensive game with the scoring of Mike Venable and Bo Snodgrass to mar the Rebels homecoming.

The Trojans pushed their season record to 3-3-1 with a victory over Graham. Battle played its best offensive game of the year.

John Battle almost pulled off an upset against East High. Gary Boothe kicked a 45 yard field goal for Battle's only score. The defensive squad was outstanding and held the Patriots to one T.D.

Another rainy Friday night and another wet football game, the Trojans tied Marion 14-14 in a mud bath.

The season ended with a 21-14 loss to Tazewell. The Trojans were scored on three times in the first quarter, and had started a second half comeback when the time ran out.

TOUCHDOWN!!

Ninth Grade

Good ball players and a maximum amount of coaching produced a record of 4 wins and 4 losses. These wins included Virginia High twice and a sound, convincing win over Tennessee High and Holston Valley. The men that composed this team should in another year help strengthen the varsity.

John S. Battle's eighth grade team culminated their 3-4 season with an 18-12 victory over the Patrick Henry Rebels.

This year's squad was an aggressive and enthusiastic team led by co-captains David Pennington and Gilmer Meade. The young Trojans showed the spunk early with an impressive victory over Gate City. A victory over Abingdon rounded out the winning side of the ledger.

With the talent and spirit shown early by these youngsters, Trojan territory will be on the rise in the coming years.

Varsity Basketball

The 1972-'73 edition of the John S. Battle Trojan basketball team is marked by a lack of height but an abundance of desire and aggressiveness. Led by senior guards Mike Bailey and Bo Snodgrass, the Trojan quint played larger and quicker opponents down to the wire before finally succumbing. Team depth and a pressing defense were instrumental in Battle's victory over Holston and the many other fine performances delivered by the Trojans.

The Phoenix Staff has captured some of the moments that will be only memories after this year. These memories are constant reminders of our days at John S. Battle. This year's Phoenix is definitely a sign of 1973.

It takes an annual staff to make an annual. Any staff can produce an annual, but it takes outside interest as well to produce the "special" annual that every staff hopes for. This year through the special help, interest, and diligent cooperation of many different people, we feel that we have produced an annual with a novel approach. The 1973 Phoenix Staff wishes to sincerely thank everyone who worked with us so patiently. A very special thanks go to:

Miss Penny Vermillion for her endless patience, extra hours, and constant concern. Without her this 1973 Phoenix could not be possible.

Mrs. Janet Derting for the beautiful art work on the cover.

Mr. Jack Cross, the representative from American Yearbook Company, for guiding us in our planning.

Classic Studio for their quality work in processing our pictures and the many extra services they've given the staff.

Bristol Herald Courier for the sports pictures they contributed to the yearbook.

School Rings:

Ours have the "Now" look

Your School ring can be unique, if it's one of ours. Take a look. The traditional ring has been up-dated with the addition of side shields that show your school colors. Then there are two revolutionary new styles—just for girls. They're jewelry, not miniature men's rings. Come see the "Now" styles. No obligation.
